

Interpreting the Odyssey

Or "The Story of the Tribe that Rules Mankind"

A Path to Awakening and Inner Peace "Para Los Serios"

Foreword

My good friend Jorge Carrillo has advised that I give a cautionary prologue as to how this article will contend several belief systems: historical, anthropological, even medical approaches since it explains all of these, metaphysically, as factual events. The logic is based upon many years understanding human signals, creating the discipline of "Human Signals Intelligence" as a way of understanding the world [1,2,3]. As the model is fractal, it applies not only to single persons, but to families, groups, companies, nations and even to the scale of the culture of the occident - even the whole world can be understood with the simple models that I have derived from the empirical world.

A person's own illnesses are messages that explain origins in their life and ancestry. Culturally, the statistical distribution of illness and causes of death give a reflection upon the metaphysical nature of the society. Rather than seeking physical causes in diet and exercise, occupation and stress, one can see the fundamental, hidden assumptions of society are the cause of widespread suffering, whether illness, poverty or educational issues. While we follow the personal and ancestral stories to understand an individual client, we follow the cultural and mythological stories to understand the origins of the present social situations, and indeed to then predict the forthcoming events.

Isaac Asimov suggested in his books on "Psychohistory" that one could understand and predict based upon knowing the different cultures of a complex planet. Well, it seems we can indeed do just that. The Holigral Method [2] addresses the theoretical basis for this work. This article is an application.

The problems of the economy and modern society cannot be solved by the thinking that created it - as many quote Einstein. The answer comes not from Governments nor finance nor law. Society is predictably broken and things will only get worse. The reasons are simple physics and systems thinking. We need a new way, and this I have, as published in [3]. One of the aspects of the solution is to address the blindness of the world's leadership and ruling elite; and that is the purpose of this article - to explain why they are as they are and how to heal their inner emptiness.

"There's trouble at 'mill."

History is recorded by victors, something I discovered when only fourteen years old, visiting my pen friend in France. England and France ignore defeats in history as far as possible and instead teach their great victories. So too is all history written. Politicians leave only propaganda, and even the bible leaves only the desired, distorted perspective and perception. Nothing written by politicians, including Moses, is to be trusted. Now, to a less contentious story, but a highly illuminating one.

The name Odysseus means "trouble". He was the most cunning and guileful member of the Achaean/Danaan tribes (the Greeks) at Troy, responsible for "The Trojan Horse" used to finally deceive the Trojans and end the war, as depicted in The Iliad [5]. His real story, though, is The Odyssey, a ten-year trial to make it home from Troy [4]. The story though, has another purpose, for those who, like the ancients, can read the signals right, and understand the meaning.

His story is the fall of occidental society from the “Eden” of Old Egypt, into the hell of the modern world, and in reverse the story is the template for the redemption of anyone with a cunning mind. Therefore, this is salutary for the politicians, those in positions of power, and rulers of the modern world, should they wish a path of redemption for the shameless corruption and intentional incompetence enacted on the world these last 3000 years.

Why would that be desirable to those who have everything? Because they do not have what really matters - happiness, a solution to the inner emptiness nor a solution to the abyss that surrounds their being - the void of nothingness - a poor parody of the All of those who are awake.

Starting Conditions

The backdrop to the Trojan War is the conflict induced by Eris the Goddess of Strife through the golden apple and the judgement of Paris. Briefly, Eris was not invited to the wedding of Peleus and Thetis (parents of Achilles), and so in revenge she threw a golden apple into the party, inscribed “to the most beautiful”. Zeus ducked choosing which of Athene, Hera and Aphrodite would receive it, and instead, Paris, Prince of Troy, was chosen to decide. The Goddesses each sought to bribe him, and he chose Aphrodite who promised him the love of Helen, the most beautiful woman in the world - but wife of Menelaus, King of Sparta.

The rest is history-story. Menelaus called upon his brother Agamemnon, High King of the Achaeans, to lead a thousand ships to recover Helen. After ten years of siege, events came to a head, many heroes died, and Odysseus came up with a plan to use a Wooden Horse to break the walls. This is the origin of the terms The Trojan Horse and “beware of Greeks bearing gifts”. As the horse was a guise for an offering to Poseidon, God of the Sea, and a ruse to defeat his people - the Trojans - he was not amused and cursed Odysseus to wander for ten years before finally arriving home.

The backdrops to the Trojan war were the cosmological events surrounding the whole region¹, meaning that an age of seriousness was to descend on the occident for a seriously long time. The Sea Peoples emerged - the Hittites (Trojans), sweeping across the Mediterranean, wiping out the cultures existing, and settling as Philistines-Phoenicians in the Levant.

However, the culture passed over was the robber-baron age of hilltop fortresses with “cyclopean” walls, an age of plunder, booty, capturing women as slaves. In contrast to the Egypt of neither walls nor fortresses, it is a serious and violent society; that of the Hyksos in all probability. In its roots is fighting over women, territory and resources - the culture of the warrior-thief-pirate-brigand, and the culture that underlies modern “civilisation” for the worse. Compared with Egypt this meme² has never been civilised, and never will be, however good the disguise, the cosmetics, the public image, or “face”.

One of the truths of Egypt, and their Gods, is to see the tribes of men as different kinds of animals or plants, and to value all life equally, each with their place in the world, and this is the real basis of homeopathy [8]. As all people are members of these fundamental tribes, it is not pejorative nor demeaning to be seen as one tribe or another, just a simple fact of the membership; all animals, all minerals, all plants, all insects, all parts of the tree of life, and indeed all the mythological creatures too, like dragons, chimeras, sphinxes, wraiths, trolls, goblins, hobbits, elves, fairies, leprechauns, minotaurs and so on.

¹ See “The Return of the Gods” for more [1]. In short, the Exodus re-understood shows YHWH to be Set the Egyptian God of the Desert and Storms, one of whose sacred animals is the pig.

² A “Meme” is a cultural thought form, that can be applied to a group of people or indeed a culture. My implication is that modern society is inherently unjust, uncivilised and poor in social values compared with, for example, any primitive tribe in any of the remote regions of the world. One has to ask why are we modern humans so evil as a collective.

Echoes of the Origins

Stories were left, to pass down the ages³, in order to show those who would later come how to undo the “cultural spells” binding the cosmological shifts of the group mind. They survived: The Iliad, the Odyssey and the stories of Perseus and Heracles being the most important. The Iliad marks the last great escapade of the brief-lived Achaean empire, Perseus marks the slaying of the female Goddess-power (Medusa, the Mayan 13) and Heracles marks the path of the saviour.

The Odyssey represents the layering of the cultural field under the rule of the cunning - the serious ones⁴ - the “spells” that hold the cultural group mind in place, with its communally closed third eye, shutting off the realm of “the other side” except for the few shamans. In particular, it represents the layering over a certain tribe of humans - the tribe that, by and large, now rules the world.

It's not a pretty insight, but it is the correct interpretation, and it reveals a path to redemption for people in power - should they choose to accept it. If they do not, the answers for the rest of the people are obvious enough. There are three ways out of the crisis: Pipers (escape the people), Drums (Mme La Guillotine) or Redemption (this path). I will explain the forward path (into the present mess) first, and then how the reverse path is used for healing and beginning the journey towards a genuine world of peace.

The Lotus Eaters

After an initial act of piracy (the very starting conditions are rape and pillage, and the right understanding of businessman is “pirate” as any reader of Peter Pan would tell you), the first event of note within the Odyssey is the visit to the land of the Lotus Eaters. This is a land where the natives eat a plant that makes men forget any worries or concerns, and just laze about all day. Odysseus “rescues” his men from this “terrible fate”, to continue the voyage.

This land will be Egypt or representative of Egypt from time before - a land of peace, fun and joy at the time. The spell of note here is the dream-trance of seriousness that afflicts Odysseus. The horrible truth is that everything can be done with little effort and with great ease, and that no-one needs to work hard - the Holigral Method demonstrates that⁵. But, the Danae⁶ being one of the tribes of serious ones to leave Egypt, had already the seriousness dis-ease - and with it, Odysseus had the compensation of “a cunning mind”⁷.

⁷ As the Holigral Method shows [2], mind emerges as a compensation for a fragmentary defining moment, whether for a person or a culture. It replaces direct revelation and knowing, perhaps explaining the importance of Oracles in that era.

Odysseus

Leaving the land of the Lotus represents an echo of Exodus but more importantly how they re-entered the dream - the falling back asleep into the trance of the serious. The Ithacans chose to return to the dream - under the control of Odysseus. It re-affirms their tribal legacy and its influence on the rest of the world as the dream-virus spread, and thus the seeds of seriousness being worst at the top were sewn.

Another, I believe more likely, interpretation is to treat the whole story as a pack of lies with grains of truth. In this case the horrible truth would be that he and his men were expelled from the land of the Lotus Eaters for being too serious. Maybe just the one tribe was the cause - the boat of the most serious (he has 12 boats of men).

The more cunning the linguist the more serious the consequences for mankind. Hypnosis actually brings clarity and awakening - the serious world is back to front from the greater (broader) truth. Mind is trance-sleep and "no-mind" is awake. Maybe there was also an echo of the war over women - maybe they had slaves or captives from Troy and the Lotus Eaters would have none of that? The original sin might be of lacking the worthiness to be allowed to live in Eden? The Gods expelled the peoples, in Genesis⁸ and in Exodus.

In place of Lotus-Liberty is Clothing

The Naked Truth of the Lotus (Wine) is Covered up

1. The Cover-Up: the eye-patch of the pirate.

⁸ Genesis is the Projected Origin post-Exodus [1].

Cyclops

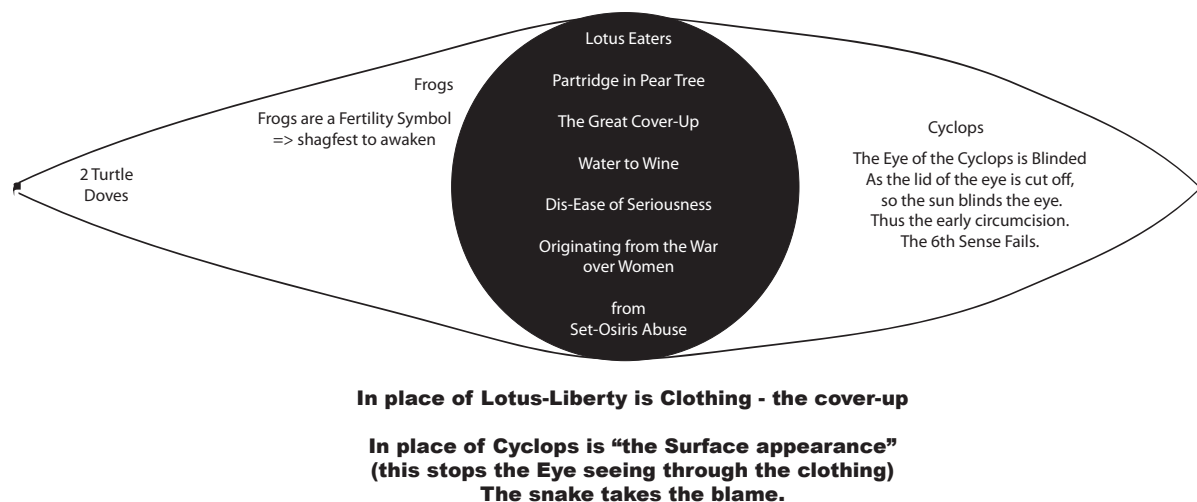

The second event is landing on the island of the Cyclops (Polyphemus). He is a giant sheep-herder who traps Odysseus and his men in his cave, eating some. Odysseus escapes by blinding the one eye of Polyphemus with a sharp stake while he slept, and then hiding underneath the sheep as they leave the cave to avoid being felt by his hands.

Polyphemus means "many-famous", thus the cyclops who is shepherd to the sheep is blinded by cunning. Literally this reflects the cunning mind shutting off the third eye, making people blind to what it can see by looking through the surface, and instead only seeing the surface glamour - "fame". It also abrogates the natural stewardship and reflects the separating of BaNebDjedet (the Egyptian Ram-God) from protecting his flock. This is the glamour to be seen through in esoteric traditions. Beauty is indeed not skin deep, but without the eye, only the surface is experienced - the back of the fleeces. As "Ba" is soul this is "serious".

The cunning mind replaces the shepherd with "projected value"⁹ - and with this comes money and the distortions that grew later. The distortions of the well moneyed are incredible to perceive to the outside eye. Image and Brand are the "currency" of the culture then created.

The real third eye is actually at the penis head or female genitalia, as can be seen from a simple comparison of the Eye of Horus with that part of her body, and old jokes about "the evil eye". To blind an eye, its lid is cut off, and the sun then does the rest. Thus the trauma of the early circumcision is inflicted both to dissociate and also to close the the third eye - and also to hide the venereal disease of the serious ones, which is centred upon sexual prohibitions.

That also explains the distortions and abuses by monks and priests, for the energy of Set the sodomist¹⁰ is uncontrolled without the circumcision. The profanity of the loss of the sacred connection is marked by the the dis-ease of veneration. In replacement of the third eye insight is the projected value of surface glamour - the inner sun no longer shines through to see below the surface. From this root grow all the distortions of the inequalities of modern society, which is far, far less civilised than those of before the Exodus.

2. The Cyclops is Blinded: Circumcision; "the Eye of the Needle" and "the Mote in the Eye"

⁹ "Projected value" is another side-effect of the loss of knowing who we really are, allowing for a discrimination that one person is worth more than another.

¹⁰ Set is the god who was renamed YHWH, for reason published in [1], God of Desert, Storms, Wasteland; jealous, vengeful and sodomistic - a perfect match. His sacred animal is the pig, and the symbol of dominion in Egypt is the Was sceptre - a Waw figure with the Set-animal head and tail. Yodh represents a piece of the tail, the H's represent fences, and the W is the Was (Set) without the head, reflecting a primal dissociation of tail and head - the circumcision and blinding of the Third Eye, and an even further echo of Ra and Apep.

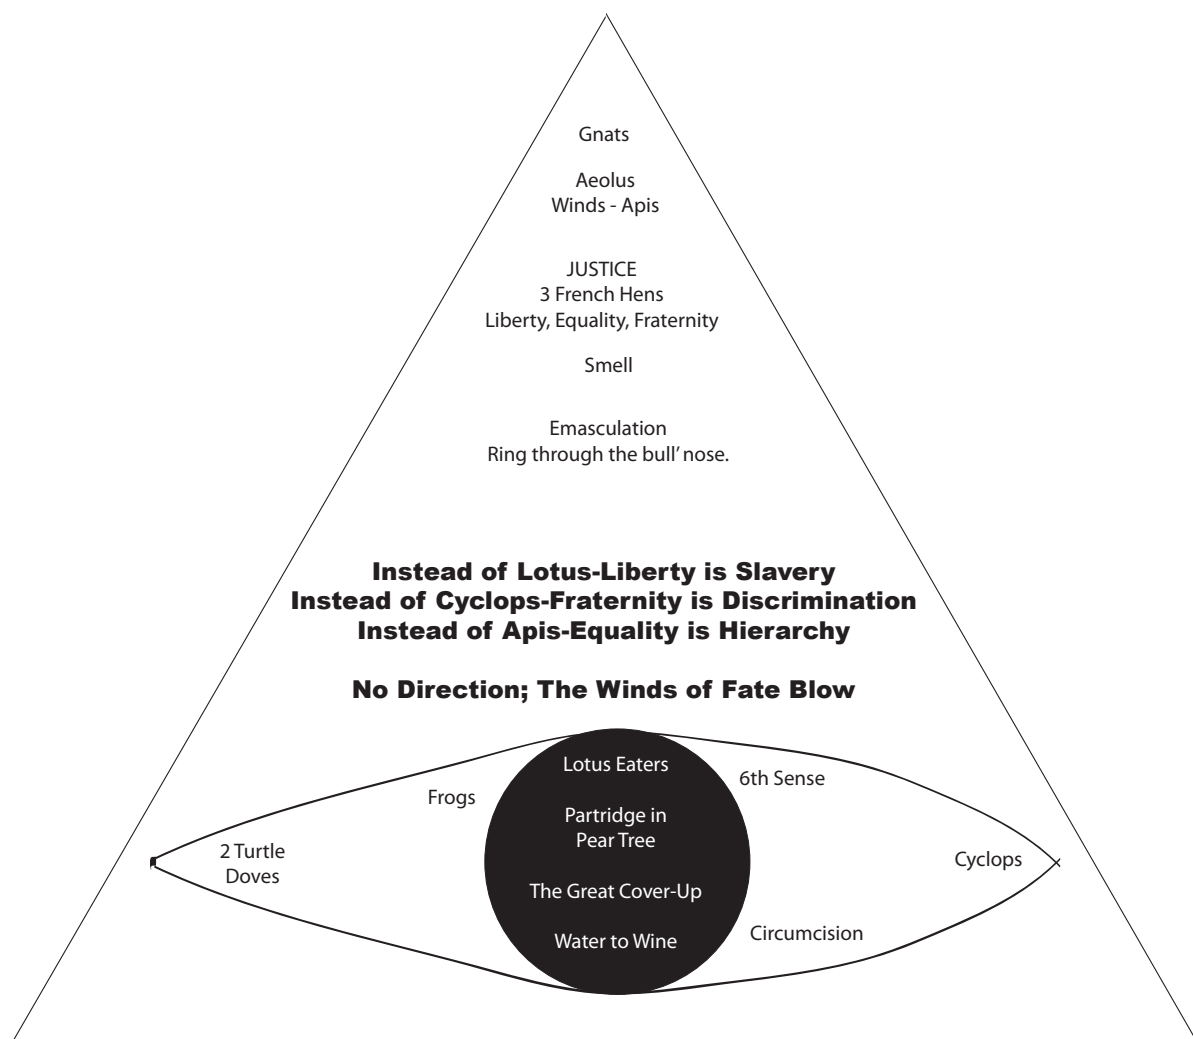

Odysseus

Aeolus, Lord of Winds

The third event is a meeting with Aeolus lord of the winds, who gifts Odysseus a bag containing all the winds except the West, so he can travel home to Ithaca safely. Unfortunately, his crew became jealous that Odysseus is hiding treasure within the bag and open it while he slept. The winds escaped, returning them all to the island of Aeolus, who then refuses to help a second time, on the grounds that the gods must be offended by Odysseus and his men.

Aeolus is the bull¹¹ - Apis and Poseidon, the real minotaur masculine power - and the moon, a reflection of the inner power. Apis was master of the four winds in Egypt, and Poseidon represented the sea, which in the Mediterranean is solely ruled by the wind.

The ring was put through the nose of the bull, literally the binding of the one-God spell was disempowering the many Gods. We see this also with Theseus killing the Minotaur. We also see that Odysseus' issues in travelling home were largely driven by the anger and hostility of Poseidon due to the sacrilege of the Trojan Horse ploy.

3. The Bull is Emasculated

¹¹ The enduring symbol of the seafaring Minoan Empire was the bull - the minotaur. The Apis bull of Egypt ruled over the winds, and the Greeks had Poseidon also associated with the bull. Across the ancient cultures this was a symbol of virility and power.

Odysseus' cunning was his undoing as the crew trusted him not. In this we see the origins of the biggest signal of this layer of the matrix, which is how the tribe of cunning ones justify having more than their fair share, and how they deserve the most money and the best quality of life, thus inciting greed and theft from those who have less. Because the others feel envy they will steal it back if they can, and so the real extra wealth is hidden. This is the energetic origin of crime and punishment based upon the idea of property and ownership. They are indeed cunning linguists, and the law is the evidence, weighted fully in favour of those who already have.

The testes and ovaries were dissociated as sensing power centres; the bull emasculated. The testes and ovaries are good sensors of power, and even the Chakra labelling is out of sequence at these, with the sun and moon reversed - the sacral is the sun and what is now called the solar plexus is rightly the moon (the "lunar plexus" would be a better name)¹². The correct order is the days of the week from root to crown.

The financial, the power, and the treasure are the compensations for the losses of the third eye and the true masculine power. The signals are many, but one might be dominatrix and kinky sex games proverbially associated with the upper class. Bullshit, rhetoric and the language of hot air - politics all - are also the signals of compensating the missing real male and female powers.

The Laestrygonians - "speak no evil"

This leads neatly to the cunning trick of the fourth event, and the heart of the whole matter. The story goes that the next island was a land of cannibalistic giants who crushed eleven out of the twelve ships and ate their crews with only the one ship of Odysseus escaping.

In reality, it was a stranding on a desert island with no winds to escape. The 12th ship of Odysseus eats the members of the other eleven, keeps the ghastly secret and blames giants (Laestrygonians - "Laertys Gonians" - "eaters of the gonads of the father") for the loss once they have the favourable wind. Each of these 12 ships carried a different tribe, but only one was left. These original tribes are reflected in the Gods of Ancient Egypt: animals, plants and so on are actually the human tribe-archetypes. Or eleven eat one, then ten eat nine and so on until one escapes and the others consume, abandoned - Easter Island - or they all go mad and one boatload escapes, leaving the remnant to consume each other.

The heartlessness that resulted from the turning of hearts to stone is shown in the treatment of other human beings - the other tribes. The disease of the heart originates here, and is shown today with the highest rates of death.

A curious side-effect of the pituitary gland dysfunctioning is gigantism - perhaps after Apis and Cyclops the next signal is indeed that of giants. The encephalitis of the animals running amok, killing each other, is a reflection of the madness of the humans feeding off each other. Scrapie and BSE emerged in the 20th Century as a result of feeding herbivorous animals off each other. The fourth plague of Egypt was a message from the animals back to their human tribe equivalents. But the blind remained blind.

The message here is that one tribe takes it's prominence over the others, literally to rule and to feed off them, as if they were cannibals metaphorically, while blaming an external agency for the situation. The other tribes are sacrificed to benefit the 12th. Sounds right for modern politics and business to me! The heart-full native tribes still share with other wanderers and tribes without a second thought, for they have not the dis-ease.

The lack of sharing is shown in every aspect of wealth, the scraps going to the beggars, the charity handouts salving the limited consciences - or at least making a public show of having a conscience in order to con the sheep. The hardened hearts of coronary patients reflect the hardened hearts of the leadership, thanks to the Aaron-Pharaoh standoff [1].

In reflection, the literal problem here is cannibalism translated into one group of people who feed off everyone else. Call this this tribe of the ruling elite and this is as it is. In Mexico, where the volcanoes pop, the Mayan centres show periodic burning of the city centres followed by abandonment. When Popocatepetl blows again, so will the signal be to the people to rise and cleanse the leadership out - call it a social heart attack if you will.

Slavery is Freedom
Discrimination is Just Reward
Hierarchy Leads: "Direction" (Directors)
One tribe cannibals the other 11 (Ownership)

4. The Elite Feed Off the Other Tribes: 1 in 12

Heart Sacrifice and the Masonic Symbol (Eye in Triangle over the Pyramid)

The spell of silence fell on the messengers - the animals went dumb, the divination was not understood, the oracles fell silent, the messengers were killed. The right phrase is "speak no evil", and no-one spoke of the evil. Four evils and four deceptions radiated into the world, and the animals ran amok in frustration at losing the telepathic link to the serious ones. Dis-ease of the heart was born.

Circe - "see no evil"

The fifth event and spell is the meeting of the enchantress Circe. Her island is an idyll, where tame animals greet the men (wolves and lions). But Circe turns his men into pigs, using her wonderful food and herbs (cheese, wine and honey). Only Odysseus escapes the spell - so goes the story. In fact, Circe had disenchanted his men and they saw their true nature - the tribe of pigs that eat of the other human animal-tribes, and the lions and wolves are men of other tribes. Clearly the cunning manipulator has no desire to see such truth and they run away as fast as possible.

This is the first clear sign of the source of true tribe of the rulers of the world - the tribe of Set (YHWH), whose sacred animal is, yes, the pig. The cheese and wine party is the modern echo of the enchantment. The pestilence kills the other animals of Egypt - following the running amok. This reflects the killing of the other "tribes" on the desert island.

Circe's legacy is the circus, the games which enchant and entertain the other tribes while the feeding of the pigs continues unabated - for they have trough-loads of money! Animal Farm says it all, as does "The Lord of the Flies" where the evil children worship a pig's head. Funny things - signals - they just keep coming back until they are understood.

As the image and brand are revealed, so the smoke and mirrors acts are needed, so the circus, the shows and the spectacles come into play, for the people need to be enchanted in order to not see the tribes in action. Together with bread this was the great control of Rome.

This is the origin of projection, the spell of the matrix that holds all in their sway save those awakened few - entertainment, glamour and distraction, held within the one ring that binds the bull and holds all the real power. The fifth plague was the death of the animals: literally no longer seen. Following BSE the mad animals die. The sight is lost completely and the serious ones can no longer see the animal archetypes within - underneath the surface veil of - each human being. In place of the sight a material manifestation was needed to signal the evil - the sixth plague of boils, like volcanoes bubbling up the subsurface.

5. All are Blinded as to the Human Tribes

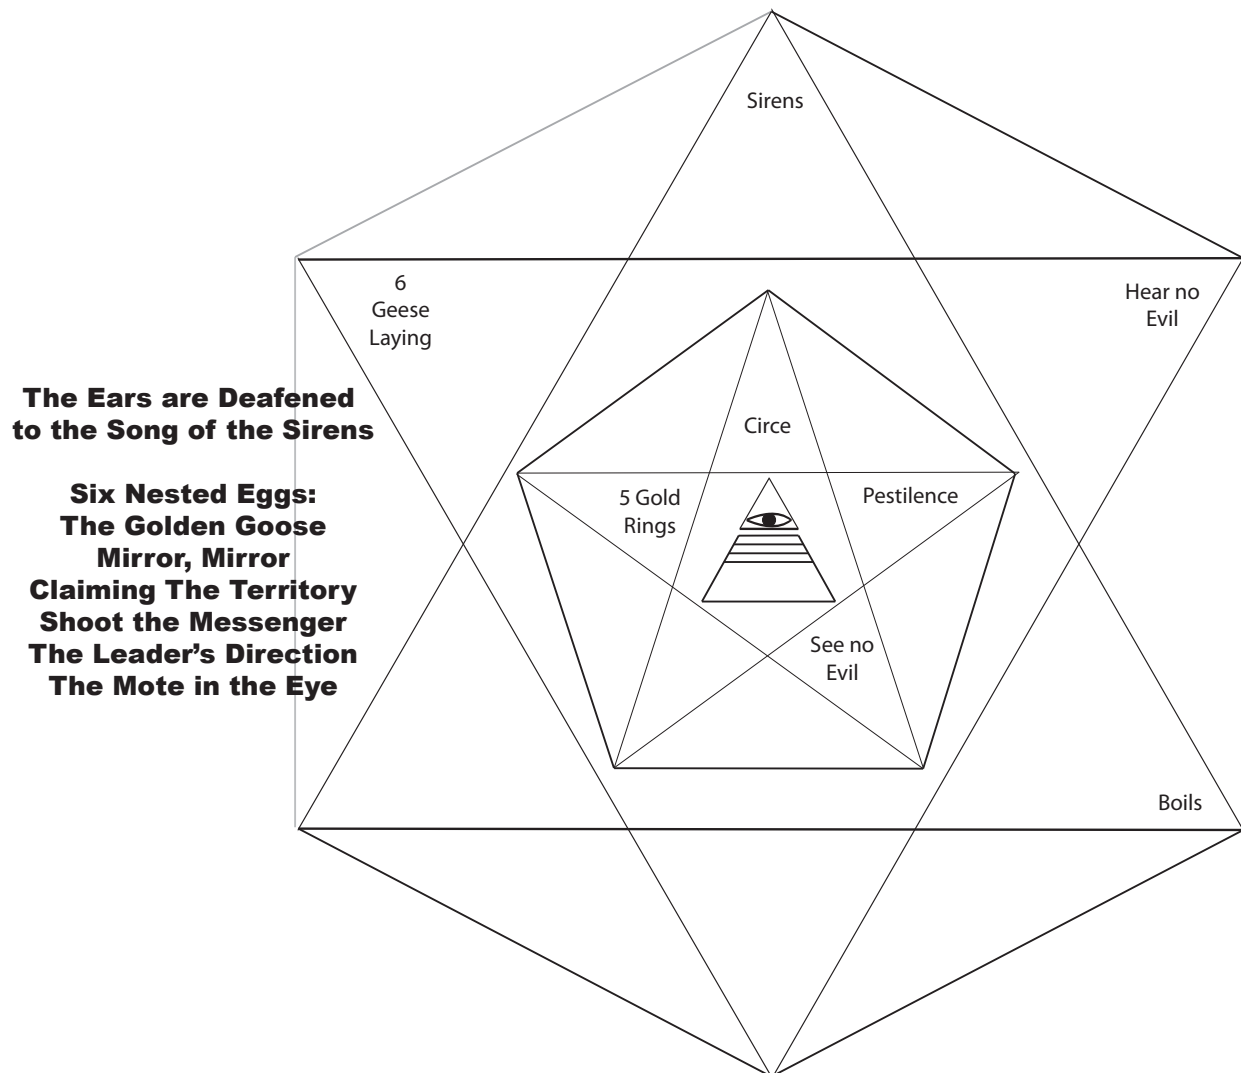

Sirens - "hear no evil"

The next episode of the adventure is to pass the Sirens who lure men to their doom. Odysseus wishes to hear them but also to survive, so he fills his crew's ears with wax and is himself tied to the mast. He yearns to follow the spell, but is bound not to, and his men are deaf to it.

The sixth spell is that of the Sirens - separating man from the charms of the feminine, separating him from the power of love that would redeem. The true love kills the ego and a man can awaken, but the false loves leave the man in his selfishness and ego. Death is the path to awakening as told in the story of Osiris, and true love is a shortcut, which was cut off by the cultural spell on the 12th tribe. Nephtys and Isis heal Osiris once he is scattered into 14 pieces in the Nile Delta.

Sirens summon men to the doom, to death through the enchanting song, but it is the ego death, awakening the man to becoming truly civilised and loving. As a path out of the matrix it was closed - the ears of the crew were filled with wax so as not to hear the song of true love.

The three wise monkeys emerge from these three episodes, making man deaf, dumb and blind to both evil and good - remorseless in deed. Together with the closing of the third eye and the loss of the sensing of the organs so is humanity robbed, and the fertile ground for the sociopath emerges, ready for what happens next.

6. The Ears Are Deafened to the Song of the Sirens

Odysseus

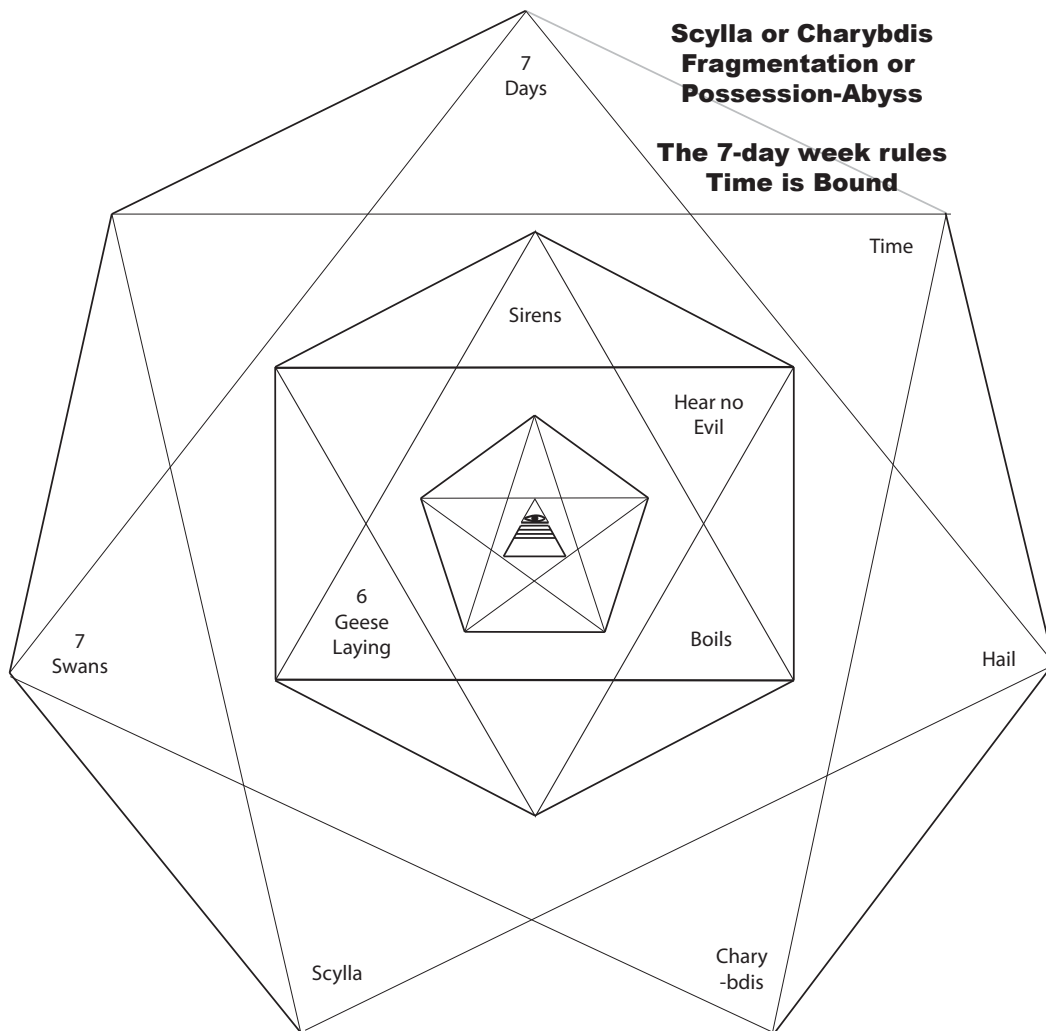

Scylla and Charybdis

The ship then has to pass through straits with a choice between a whirlpool that will swallow the ship or a 6-headed monster that will grab many of the crew. Odysseus chooses to pass by the monster and lose a few of his men.

The seventh spell is the knife-edge choice between Scylla (the personal collective of fragmented aspects - Hydra), and Charybdis - the abyss of the sociopath possessed of an entity within a black hole, through which (almost) no-man can pass. The ego-less can though, and as Odysseus heard the sirens but could not respond, being tied up, he survived. Clever man¹³.

The real story here is that man falls either into forming a personal collective that is his trance or subject to an "entity possession" that dominates like a black hole. This is fully described in [2], the theory for the structures of the self and the methods for their undoing. Whether a person takes the left or the right is down to their life path - the dictates of inheritance and events. The signals are clear - the signals of the structure or the signals of manipulation.

The path of life is through the channel of these two monsters, and eventually all but the few awakened are caught by one or the other, for such is the design of the matrix-dream. "Here there be monsters."

7. Fragmentation (personal collective of aspects) or the Abyss (Entity-Possession)

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarves"

¹³ Seems like he was ego less when actually the truth was the opposite.

The Cattle of Helios

Another island is then reached, this time owned by the Sun God, Helios, and populated by his cattle. Despite the warning of Hermes, some of the cattle are plundered, and Helios calls upon Poseidon to wreck the ship.

The eighth spell relates to the cattle of Helios - despoiling the harmless followers. The cattle then follow the one-god, and are now ruled over by the tribe of the pig. This annoys the gods and Odysseus is shipwrecked and left as the only survivor. The symptom in the world is exploitation of the people, the animals and the resources, and the claims of dominion over all. The followers of the leader are sacrificed in the name of the greater good of the leader's goals.

The suffering of the people under the yoke of the ruling elite is the dis-ease to be seen here - poverty, malnutrition, discrimination, slums, wastelands, desertification, fences and borders, mis-education and serfdom-employment.

The sun gives love equally to all creatures of earth, it does not discriminate as to who is more or less worthy of love or nourishment or food or shelter. The one-god religions impose authority on others, rather than living in tolerance and accepting of diversity. The code of the pig is enforced on the other tribes, whether they will or not. Even if the code is upgraded to atheism then so is its religion of science imposed - for the true member of the human pig tribe can never feel the "divine".

8. Money Rules: Coins with a Square hole.

Odysseus

The signals now are the enforcement of law, the bias towards those in power, the society of crime and punishment, and a world that truly is "The Lord of the Flies". The games of divide-and-conquer, "two-party democracy" and "crime and punishment" run the show. Inspection, as per [3] reveals this all to be the code of the sociopath, and so as the rules are sociopathic, so society gradually falls into their way.

Calypso

Calypso rescues Odysseus, and for seven years he stays with her, until she has to let him go. This reveals seven veils that were laid between the cunning one and the gods. According to "Etymologicum Magnum" her name means καλύπτουσα το διανοούμενον, i.e. "concealing the knowledge", which combined with the Homeric epithet δολόεσσα, meaning subtle or wily, justifies the hermetic character of Calypso and her island.

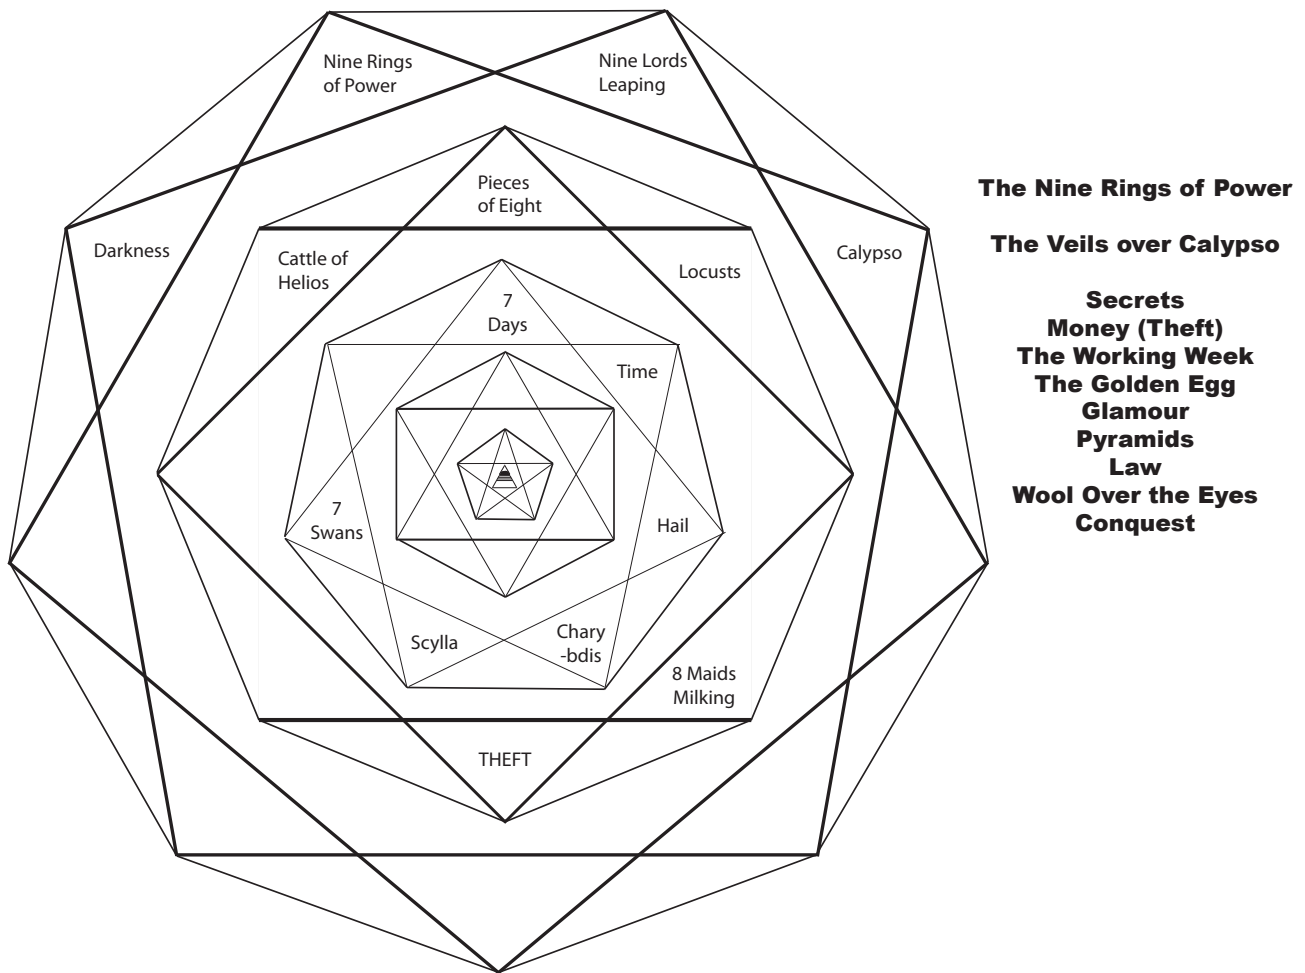

The gods hid the knowledge so that the man who deserved not, would not find. And that meant the entire tribe of the serious ones - ultimately, the entire occident - was not meant to live with the Gods, but rather to be separated. More than that, this spell stops these people from hearing, seeing or understanding the truth even if it is presented on a golden platter. And that is a fundamentally frustrating problem for those who do discover the truth, because literally the trance of the serious ones does not allow the words.

The message has more meanings though, for Odysseus plays with his Goddess and then abandons her, having never really loved. This is the sociopath in action in the world - in relationships, in business, in government, promises broken, stick and carrot played, but in the end the cat bores of the mouse and leaves the game.

There are nine main kinds of manipulations that the sociopath-pig-goblin-wolf tribe apply to control and run out their games.

- ➡ 9 Secrecy (Calypso), e.g. official secrets, economy with the truth
- ➡ 8 Money (Cattle), e.g. law and "freedom"
- ➡ 7 Divide and Conquer (Scylla), e.g. competition, political parties
- ➡ 6 Charisma and Charm (Siren), e.g. divas and schmoozers
- ➡ 5 Bread and Circuses (Circe), e.g. entertainment, sport
- ➡ 4 Lies and Empty Promises (Laestrygonians), e.g. politics, bonuses, pensions, kill the messengers
- ➡ 3 Victim-Persecutor-Rescuer (Aeolus), e.g. crime and punishment
- ➡ 2 Glamour and Image (Cyclops), e.g. exclusive brands, celebrity
- ➡ 1 War for Peace (Lotus Eaters), e.g. WWII, Cold War, Iraq, Iran, ...

These basic game forms can be combined, developed into more sophisticated models and hidden beneath camouflage, but they are all part of the magic that is woven to keep the cattle and sheep at work. Periodically, though, they get bored and want a war or a conflict, and then we see the signals that are obviously present now. Ultimately, nothing can sate their needs and death is their only release.

9. The Nine Rings of Power of Men over Others

The hidden knowledge is obvious to the awakened, and only to be revealed to the elite in trade for all they have unfairly accumulated.

The Suitors

Finally, Odysseus is landed back in Ithaca and has to kill the troublesome suitors who occupy his land and chase his lady. Being outnumbered heavily, he has to use all his guile to gain control of the weapons - the bow (or the army in a modern state). His lady, being Queen, represents the land. The suitors represent the politicians - and indeed they still wear wool suits, they suit in law and they despoil the land. That is the beginning of the slavery of the modern states, and represents the Fall From Grace, not of the devil, but of the serious ones and the peoples they ruled.

Suitors make promises oriented in the future, whereas real leaders make affirmations of past conduct. This contrasts the ten commandments as promises with the 42 affirmations of Ma'At requiring evidence of the past. The missing 35 affirmations in the 7 promises that have legacy in the ten commandments reveal the signals of evil in the world due to the dis-ease of seriousness and the distortions that go with it: selfishness, prioritisation of resources, justification of some have more than others, property and ownership, slavery in many forms - presently "employment".

There is not that much to say about these suitors, as their games are exposed. Perhaps the main thing is to see “cat and mouse” play. Politicians will allow a pilot programme, raising hope, then never allow the main programme to happen, because they:

Odysseus

So, this was the story of the creation and refining of the goblin state that now rules humanity, worldwide, and at all levels of society, with a few “good eggs” thrown in to put the rest of us off guard. The binding of it all fell within the spell book of the one-god - the Pentetuarach. And so it was for 3160 years or so.

The Present

Odysseus represents the survivor and the winner in modern society, where cunning, deception and tricks are the order of the day. But who says it has to be that way? Only those who do not know how to make it any different, or who have advantages in the resulting slavery, misery and resource poverty that now abides. To undo all the damage is a matter of reversing the steps.

The discipline of systems thinking shows the concentration of money, power and ownership runs away to a few, followed by revolutions and unrest, and the pattern repeats, just like the volcanoes in Mexico reflect the patterns of cyclic burning out of the centres of civilisations. Unless a Government almost exclusively sets its laws to protect the poor from the rich and to tax the rich primarily in order to return wealth to all, then this cyclic pattern is inevitable.

So, why does occidental man carry all the diseases which seem to kill off the natives who he meets? Why does African DNA mostly trump other DNA during inter-breeding? Why is “black Africa” disinclined to work hard? Simple really; the Gods desire to eliminate the evil of the occidental way of life, by disease or genetics, wars or famines. If enlightenment does not work then death will. There is no reason to work hard as all can flow easily with only a few hours a week. The way of the occidental is less efficient, less healthy, less joyous and less worth living. The diseases reflect the sickness, and now it infects almost all the world, and as such the patient is in terminal decline.

The compensation culture comes literally from compensating. Television replaces, for normal people, what many dyslexics and autists have naturally flowing in their mind. Physical telepathy devices are being invented to compensate for the loss of connection through the mind-field. Alien contact desires are compensating for the lack of seeing the human tribes and lack of seeing below the surface. The point is that all these compensations can be cheaply and freely acquired by addressing the inner evils and structures rather than the great expense of the material path. When you see a person using crutches you understand the compensation, but what about glasses, calculators, spellcheckers, medicines and doctors for social disease, law and police for the lack of conscience, or hierarchy for low self-esteem?

The seeds of revolution sprout as controls grow. The ruler know this, so clearly with tactics like kettling, they want social conflict. They are arming the laws and training the police to deal with the loss of pension value and employment, as they get the pay off of a period of time of crushing the spirit of the good people, of the cattle and sheep. After this they will die happy in the revolutionary pressures that blow the tops of the pyramids. Popocatepetl is ticking and marking the timing of these events.

But there is another way, we do not have to go through these cycles again and again. Surely even the most sociopathic of goblins must be now bored of the games and desiring something new. And this is why I am now here: to destroy their world or to bring them healing - the choice is theirs, the Gods are returned and awaiting my lead in events. The clock ticks; your move.

Before you decide, though, have a look at the new way out. They way back in is obvious - carry on and see the replay of the fall of Rome. Someone else will dig up the gold in another thousand years.

Part 2: The Way Out

Reversing the path back in, this is how Holigral can lead the tribe of the elite into enlightenment. Yes, they can still rule afterwards. Yes, they can still be serious sometimes if they have to be, and probably yes to all the other childish requests. There will be amends to be made, though, because healing will return a conscience, and that will need salving.

Redressing the Suitors

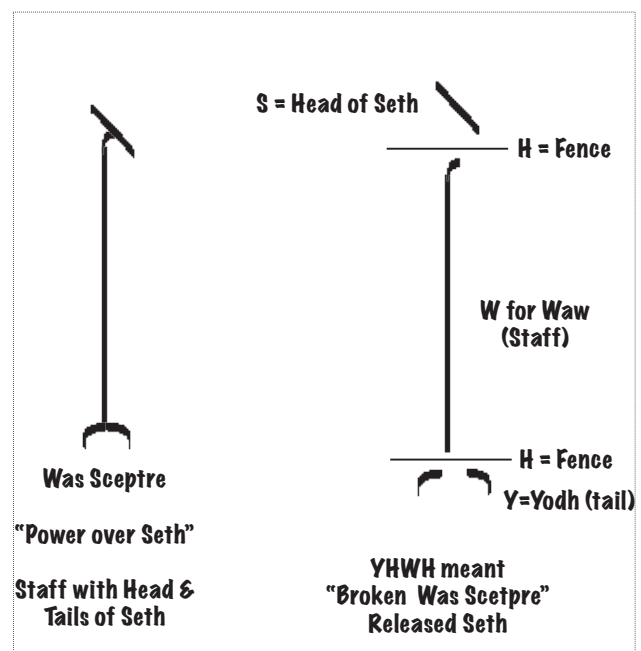

Slaying the suitors with arrows of truth is the beginning. The bow is the holigral method, which works best for awakened archers. The suitors are a perfect metaphor of the modern politicians and ruling elite - they suit Penelope (the people) for the right to rule, wasting and spending the resources as they indulge in her beneficence. All that Penelope wants is her husband back to rule - a true, strong, loving protector and steward. Only France has truly dealt with them - for a while, and she needs a new cleanse. These are some of the arrows we have¹⁴:

- The Holigral Model and Method, Revealing the Structure, and providing methods for making people and society whole.
- exposing future promises versus past performance - unfit to rule.
- exposing corruption and intentional incompetence - unfit to rule.
- revealing the distortions of money and property, ownership, shares, investment - unfairness in action and structures.
- revealing the distortions of law and order, justice and prison - symptoms of unfairness.
- revealing the truth of "the One God" - the distortion of mono-isms.
- exposing the sociopaths: pigs, wolves, goblins.
- ending discretionary wills; to make equal inheritance, as is done in France.
- reversing "crime and punishment" as the real sins are "ownership and non-sharing"

The correct reframe for politics is "we" - caring for all, equally. As politicians and rulers, the beginning of the path towards wholeness of being is to acknowledge the fact of the harms being caused. As Mandela showed, the people only want "truth and reconciliation". That will do for the people, also.

I have tested with sociopaths, and they are willing to admit their deeds if they get no punishment for them. This of course is quite funny given how much punishment they have inflicted with law, rules and regulations upon the people. But, as it is. Once this is done, then the door will be opened to the hall of knowledge.

The One-God spell was broken on 21st February 2011, and his true name was then revealed - Seth. With hindsight the clues were obvious and only a charm of not-seeing could explain why no-one had worked it out before. With the cultural "spell" broken it is easier for the single person to cross their own "god" boundaries.

¹⁴ See the appended tables for more detail on this.

Odysseus

Redressing the Veils of Calypso

To undo the veils of Calypso, one must address the patterns of the seven days of the week, the seven kinds of trauma and dissociation in order to even begin to reach out to the Gods, first learning to care for the woman goddess - Calypso - "I love you, Calypso", sacrificing the pieces of eight - money¹⁵ - revealing the eight patterns of manipulation that go with money and unveiling the secrets of "the gods".

The signals of penance would be the removal of money and ownership from law and the establishment of sustainable balance and gross national happiness as the key metrics of good governance. The Buddhist path of "Right Action" applies here. The way to do this is to deconstruct each of the eight games played, to escape the habits, the needs and the causes. Unless the proper, due price is paid though, the escape will not happen, not because I or my processes don't work or don't want it to, but because the cosmic forces - Gods if you like - require convincing, and no bullshit will get past them.

The real signal of completion here is the opening of empathy for the other tribes - which is the pre-requisite for being able to take the next step.

The cultural spell of the 9 rings of power - the veils of Calypso - were broken on 8th May 2012. As with all un-spelling, 'how' is our little secret. The same spell overlays each human within the matrix still, but it is only a personal structure now; the tap root is gone.

Redressing the Cattle

The cattle have to be returned to Helios-Amun, and that means telling the true story of the Exodus, unveiling the real identity of YHWH and undoing the ills of those three religious offshoots. This matches the final Heracleian labour - slaying the triple-headed monster Geryon and returning his cattle to Helios.

The Square "Chinese" Centre to the Piece of Eight

¹⁵ This is a reference to the third "Pirates of the Caribbean" film, where the goddess Calypso is released by sacrificing the pieces of eight and declaring love for her. While this is a movie the signals are channelled in mysterious ways, and to the eyes that see aright there are plenty of hidden signals in movies - because they reflect the present consciousness of the group mind, unknowing to the channels who write the scripts, just like authors of old also channeled the world around.

Odysseus

The money vibration is challenged culturally by exposing the eight profanities which underpin it. However, the spell of the consequences of money will remain, maybe forever, because it means that any or any incorporated entity that manipulates money will not "get" the magic nor witness it. Evidence of this in fact has happened enough times to convince me that this is both true and will remain true. Sacred commerce, and only sacred commerce can avoid such consequences. There is an old saying by Mohammed "trust in Allah but keep your camels tied." Turn this around: "trust in people but keep the magic under sacred laws". It is why manipulated prayers will never work, and it is why gods work through the accidental, jokes and asides.

Redressing Scylla and Charybdis

To address Scylla requires exorcism, and to address Charybdis requires the Holigral Method of Rescaling - it is about undoing the structures and blocks and removing any possessing foreign entities from the self. The curse on the rulers is that they have to free the people (cattle of Helios) first, before they can be healed themselves. Only 4% are the sociopaths of Charybdis; the other 96% suffer the fate of Scylla.

My gift to the world can be the Holigral Method for healing all the serious ones. The Hydra explains the Scylla structures: patterns of six separate the many heads. Approaches to cut off heads double them, and the right answer is to correctly navigate - naturally. The end result of this work is the preparation for the death of the ego and the metaphysical resurrection - rebirth.

Jesus said it was harder for a rich man to get into heaven than a camel to pass through the eye of a needle. He is right. One has to lose all possessions. This means all entities - including the money one.

The Holigral Method works, but will not complete unless all entities are released and the structures undone. Then is one free of the "spell of the seven". This spell was undone some time in 2006. The seven rings of the dwarves (Tolkien) reflect the engineering pattern of seven in the lifecycle (R-CADMID). His seven seeing stones (Palantiri) reflect the seven perspectives one can take on any focus of attention (when, why, what, where, who, how, effect) within a frame.

Redressing the Sirens

The Truth of the Sirens is that man dies to be reborn humane and to awaken the Sirens within, in this case allowing the Goddess to live within, and discovering real love. It is the ego death and story of Osiris, and a very necessary step for any who would wish to rule in the new age. It is the result of doing enough Holigral processing and making sufficient recompense to mother nature and particularly womankind.

This re-birthing happens once all ego-related elements of the self and perceptions have been addressed - not just one cosmological boundary, but all of them. Completion will then be with allowing the Goddess within (whether one is a man or a woman) and the Goddess agreeing the temple is fit for her to enter. This cultural spell was broken in early 2012. The right story is "sleeping beauty".

Redressing Circe

The Truth of Circe is to see the human tribes; "whole, social men" as enlightened beasts - the Tribes - until you see these you are not awake enough, until you see everyone else as also equal in all aspects it is also not enough - same food, shelter and human needs, same "money" or economic deserts. The "just deserts" is really a horrible joke of the distortion where the people of the desert god prioritise themselves. As the leaders of the Peasants' Revolt sang circa 1400, "when Adam delved and Eva span, who then was a gentleman?"

The TV programme Grimm is a beginning of cultural awakening to this level of experience, only it places all back to front, making the animals the perpetrators, rather than the one tribe it places as victim - the piggies victim of the wolf. How funny is that, when the piggies rule?! But then the whole thing here is one of undoing victim-consciousness, which is how the perpetrator of harm justifies their actions of evil onto others, and then sets up charities to rescue the people they damaged in the first place. The Karpman Triangle applies culturally, with victim tribes exploiting the other peoples. The game has to end, and a new way of living walked.

This means therefore creating a genuine socialism or commune-ism where all partake of a fair share, where none are more equal than others in the eyes of the rulers, and a completing of the end of money, ownership and property rights. The sun shines on all equally, and so should the fruits of the land.

Beginning with a society along the lines of France would be a good start. The signs of this being achieved will be actions to redistribute wealth and ownership, and equalise standards of living, significantly raising that of the poorest 20% for example. It might mean transferring shares to the employees for example.

While this was common knowledge to the ancient Egyptians, the sight was lost to humanity, apart from stories that some owners look like their dogs. I began seeing the real human "tribes" - the animals within, the animal seen with the other sight - in 2001, and even more clearly the last few years. The feedback of the cultural spell being broken is the TV series "Grimm", where the hero can see the "special" characters' underlying animals. There are many "Grimms" out there now.

Redressing the Laestryonians

The cannibalism has to stop. No longer do some feed off others, but rather we all contribute and equally partake of fair=equal share of the pie, preserving and conserving all the natural resources, or indeed the desert island of the cannibalistic giants will indeed come home to roost. Easter Island is the solemn reminder - it even has the giants in stone.

As pigs do indeed treat others equally so indeed the evidence is that others will no longer be treated equally badly, but truly equally. While this is not the case the curse of money applies, and the hole in the centre of the pieces of eight reveals that the further revelations, knowing and experience will remain imaginary until equality is real. This is the key and the gate to the kingdom heaven, and losing all "possession" willingly, knowingly and without design to regain any are steps up that pathway.

Giants - encephalitis cannibal disease animals amok - animals dying the after-effect seen at stage 5

Restoring the messengers; animal telepathy, re-understanding the Oracle, re-learning divination are the after-effects of doing the right thing here. As a divine punishment the Gods stopped listening, and only recently have they returned and agreed to listen. The leaders followed (as above so below), and thus the mess. This spell was undone, and also the silence of the Gods broken.

Redressing Aeolus

Apis was released from Goblin prison in April 2012. There is still much to do, but the winds of change are here. From the personal perspective, the true power lies within the inner Minotaur - los cojones, and the only safe time to integrate this true power is after the ego-death of the Siren experience. Ironical, but there is no real power and no real authenticity until everyone else is treated equally. The true silverback only takes what he needs from the tree, the equal share. Like the goddess will only return to the clean temple, so it goes for the bull-god. The French lead the way - a genuine liberty, equality and fraternity.

The plague of gnats was to prick the conscience, and so Loki signals. Mosquitoes show the way. Malaria is the dis-ease that reflects this, being in all the non-occidental countries. The conscience should be pricked to help the other peoples and share the resources equally. Until this happens the bull will not return into the leaders of the occident and they will continue to have no cojones.

Odysseus

Redressing Polyphemus

The sacrifice of cunning and the acceptance of true shepherding is the penultimate task of the aspiring member of the hierarchy. By unprojecting value is the eye opened, but one can only confirm this once one can see the Gods again in all their glory, and the form of that perception is our little secret for now. ;-)

Only once a true equality of treatment of all life is happening through the vehicle of natural love with the final gate be opened, and Eden returned. The prize is seeing the Gods and other side as it really is, and communing and being with such amazing forms of life, beyond human comprehension.

The cyclops, like other beings "of the other side", remains invisible to humans at this time, though he can be seen by those who truly awaken, as can indeed the entire "other side". By truly living the right way of all the higher eight, so can this too truly open. What people see now with "the third eye" is merely a projected sight of the imaginary.

As frogs were the plague and symbolise fertility the spell of "go forth and multiply" had to be undone. The sexuality moves into right relations and the venereal diseases will dissipate as this happens, as love replaces sex. The "Ba" is the soul in Egyptian mythology, and literally until this stage is reached the soul is not truly back and descended into the body of the reforming "serious one".

Redressing the Lotus

The "curse of the chosen ones" was broken in July 2008, on request in the Autumn of 2007. At that time, on retreat, we experienced a day of flies, a day of frogs and a day of water running red from the taps and showers. A few weeks earlier we also narrowly missed a flash flood - check out Llinars del Valles for the news at the time (11 June). The drug of truth will reveal if the person has now truly awakened. The dis-eases will fail as the leadership and peoples move into social health and community.

If one passes the other layers, one is hit by the sleeping vibe of the escape from the lotus eaters (Egyptian) who were awake. One "takes grass" to find peace joy love one partakes of the lotus only at the end. After all, sheep and cattle do eat grass. Probably this means a largely vegetarian diet. The trick is to stay awake when the entire energy of the spell of sleepiness is at its strongest. The signal is chronic fatigue syndrome, something that seems to hit spiritually aware people more than the fully entranced members of society.

The Truth of the Lotus - Buddha, Rastafarianism, marijuana and peace. Enter the kingdom of heaven on earth - the lotus eaters of course, that is the spell of awake, and it is the opposite to sleep as portrayed in the Odyssey. It does not need grass - simply one accepts to eat and be as one of the other human tribes, to take no more and to no longer live off the others. This is the only path to enlightenment available to the tribe of the rich and the powerful - the human tribe of Set, symbolised by the pig, the animal they do not eat.

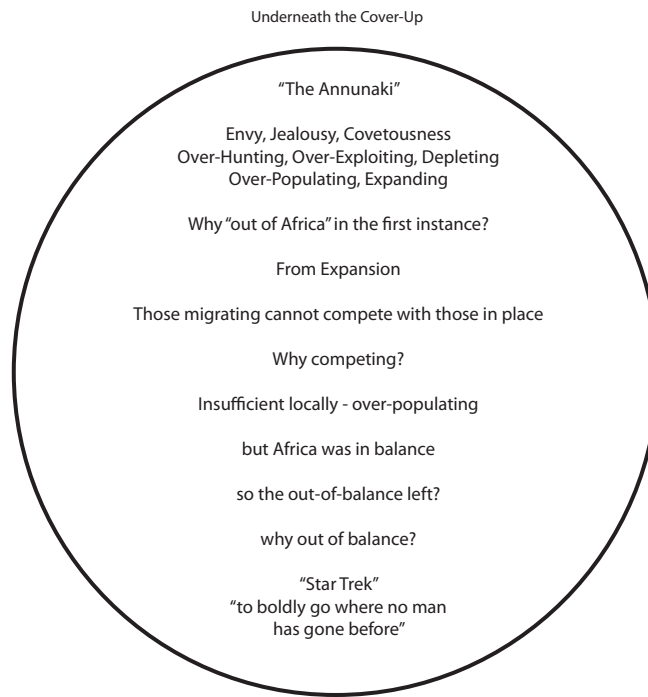

Buddha taught meditation for groups to escape the dream. He was only interested in the serious ones, but opened to all-comers. It is why his work is so serious though, as also was the work of Gurdjieff.

But Are There Any Deeper Layers of Cover-Up?

Odysseus

The great cover up includes the envy, jealousy, self-esteem and compensatory issues of the Caucasian tribes that go long further into the past. Why were all the big animals hunted to extinction? Just as Neanderthal man was out-DNA'd by the Caucasian, so too is the Caucasian being out-DNA'd by the African. This will continue unless right understanding, right actions, right relations and harmony with nature is established. If that happens so too will dis-ease end, or at least be greatly reduced. Mayan heart sacrifice has to be understood in a new light; population balance.

Simply, the implanted urge to expand ... and so to the stars.

A Wider Context

"Only the worthy find the grail." The horrible truth is that the Hyksos tribe felt unworthy after being kicked out of Eden-Egypt, and even from before the envy and jealousy were the roots of the god(s) of thunder (Set, Baal, Zeus, Jove, Thor and so on), rulers over wasteland and deserts and nomadic tribes. Outside of Egypt the wealthy did not share with the nomads, creating the envy and situation of invasion after invasion. In Egypt they did welcome and share, but then expelled - because the dis-ease of the seriousness could not be cured by their methods.

This then is the origin, the Exodus and its projected Genesis where the God ejected the people from Eden. It is not knowledge but the replacement of knowledge with faith or teaching that was the evil - the covering up. There was more than one Exodus. The big one was actually when Ahmose re-conquered Avaris. The later Exodus was the result of the plagues to expel the rest, after a long period of trying to assimilate and pacify the remnant. Admitting failure came the plagues. Later Hyksos arrivals, even unto Odysseus were also treated largely the same - until the power of the gods failed under the rule of the Set-Apep axis, and Alexandria embraced again a multicultural life. By then, Set was demonised in Egypt and the Hyksos had well and truly replaced the name with YHWH - the deepest cover-up of all - the lost secret of the Masons.

The Iliad and its precursor, the wedding of Peleus and Thetis, give the last backdrop the events after the Exodus and before the Odyssey, and as such reflect the starting conditions. As Chaos Theory applied everywhere, understanding these will help in the final insights. The Trojan War was over women. The cause of this was the introduction of the first beauty contest over the Golden Apple, and the cause of this was Eris acting as part of the general weaving of conflict to allow for a promised land for the last group of Exodus travellers. The cause of this was the inability of the Egyptians to heal the serious ones of their dis-ease. This is what we are to rectify this time. Where the seriousness came from has been solved and healed, now only the people remain to heal.

Concluding

By addressing the Odyssey in reverse, so can the "Promised Land" finally be realised. And now the final surprise, all of these can happen together within the Holigral process. The unravelling of knowledge and insight and abilities happens differently for each person, but all are available. It's not such a long path after all, maybe a few weeks, perhaps a few months for some. The supporting materials, appended, provide some basic maps of the territory. The ten gates lead to the land of "heaven on earth". Why wait?

The continuation of the present path of society will result in revolution and a prolonged dark age of one form or another. I am the big bad wolf and I will huff and puff and blow your "house" (civilisation) down. Ten further plagues will there be, each worse than the previous. You have been warned - become stewards and make peace on earth or the Gods will act - hint; they already are. Do you think Fukushima was an accident? Japan and Germany listened, but why did no-one else?

The Dharma of the Holy Grail

The purpose of Holigral is to heal the ills of the world and to present the Gods in their true light. The Holigral Method is like the fire of Prometheus, it is the magic of the gods, the truth of the matrix, brought to mankind with the blessings of the Gods. It will not work for anyone who manipulates money - that is simply as it is; the spell neither can nor will be undone.

The Ten Great Truths

1. Fraternity. We are all ONE - part of the same being. Whatever harm we do to another is to ourselves. Life is easy once we all behave as one and cooperate. Everything then flows. The Ant and the Grasshopper.
2. Equality. We are diverse, magical beings, each with unique or different, useful skills that become apparent once we act like one team. No one person (or being) is worth more than another. See with the eye of love. Peter Pan.
3. Liberty. We are each free to do as we please in contributing to life. Doing what we love is the right offering. Don't buy the bullshit of those who say otherwise. Three Little Pigs.
4. Free Speech. The animals show the way of each human tribe. We feed each other, not off others - it is a food-chain not a food pyramid - human beings ought to be recycled into nature, also. Speak out when you see wrong is done, and cause no harm (see Ma'At). Jack and the Beanstalk.
5. All that glistens is not gold, all that is gold does not glisten. See through the surface to recognise the underlying tribes of those around you. Real beauty is more than skin deep. Beauty and the Beast.
6. The death of the ego is the birth of the truly humane being. The Little Mermaid.
7. Possession and Fragmentation are a legacy of the dark ages of the last 3150 years; separation leads to suffering; life need not be like that, but "the matrix" is. Snow White.
8. The sun provides all, unconditionally, and that is how all rulers must be. Money is a trap leading to extortion and directly to poverty. Charity is how the rulers salve their consciences for the distortions, and as such it is also the wrong answer, for it hides the real dis-ease. Money manipulators can never see nor experience magic; it is beyond their sight. The Brownie and the Potatoes.

Odysseus

9. There are nine patterns of manipulation used to enforce the injustice of the present world. Opposing them are nine challenges. Sleeping Beauty.
10. The suitors promise and are thus not to be believed. Past performance is the only guide for future potential. Cinderella.

The Remedy in Practice:

A people's declaration of independence of the Government - and a declaration of reconquest, sharing all property / shares / rights among the people, the people own any government.

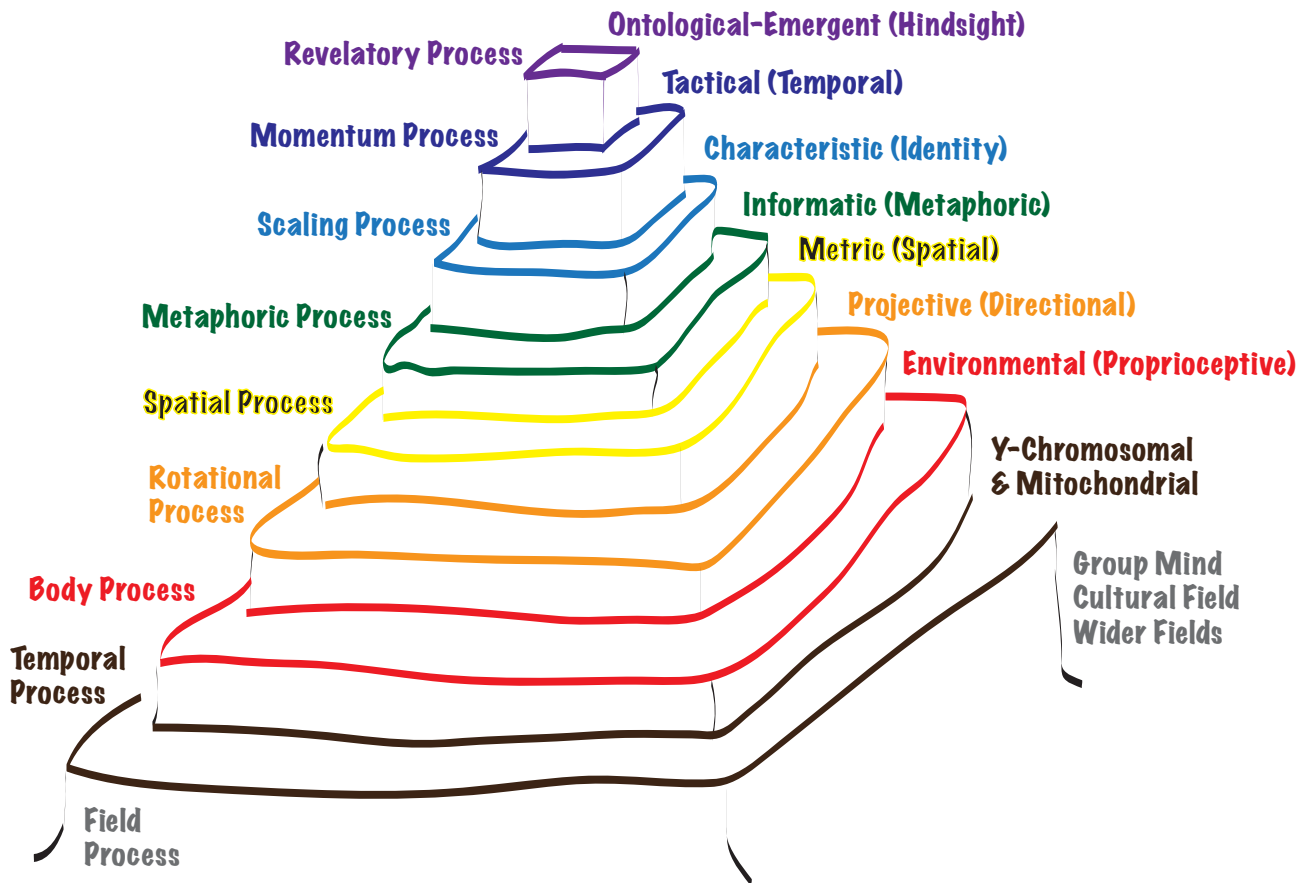

- 🌀 Property is tenancy under stewardship
- 🌀 People are equally deserving of the same quality and standard of life, education and healthcare, regardless of job or "status"
- 🌀 Stewardship as Governance
- 🌀 The only intolerance is intolerance
- 🌀 One Mind, One Land, One People
- 🌀 Money gradually eliminated as the people paced to living without it. Exposing how money works for all to see.
- 🌀 Politics based upon past performance affirmations, not promises
- 🌀 Information to reveal and show through the deceptions - goblin reading. Human Signals Intelligence
- 🌀 Holigral methods to undo structures, exorcise demons, attain effortless performance, bust stories and excuses

Holigral and Homeopathy

From wikipedia, on Homeopathy (my abridged version)

German physician Samuel Hahnemann first stated the basic principle of homeopathy in 1796, known as the "law of similars." This principle is: "let like be cured by like." He believed that by using drugs to induce symptoms, the artificial symptoms would stimulate the vital force, causing it to neutralise and expel the original disease and that this artificial disturbance would naturally subside when the dosing ceased. It is based on the belief that a substance that in large doses will produce symptoms of a specific disease will, in extremely small doses, cure it.

An early assertion that like cures like was made by Hippocrates about 400 BC, when he prescribed mandrake root, which produced mania, to treat mania, by prescribing a dose smaller than what would produce mania.

In 1828, Hahnemann introduced the concept of miasms; underlying causes for many known diseases. A miasm is often defined by homeopaths as an imputed "peculiar morbid derangement of [the] vital force". Hahnemann associated each miasm with specific diseases, with each miasm seen as the root cause of several diseases. According to Hahnemann, initial exposure to miasms causes local symptoms, such as skin or venereal diseases, but if these symptoms are suppressed by medication, the cause goes deeper and begins to manifest itself as diseases of the internal organs.

Homeopathy maintains that treating diseases by directly opposing their symptoms, as is sometimes done in conventional medicine, is ineffective because all "disease can generally be traced to some latent, deep-seated, underlying chronic, or inherited tendency". The underlying imputed miasm still remains, and deep-seated ailments can be corrected only by removing the deeper disturbance of the vital force.

About The Holigral Method

The biggest external influence on the development of Holigral was the ideas of David Grove. In particular:

- ➡ his work was designed to minimise the projective influence of the facilitator or environment because projection is the biggest cause of dissociative trauma,
- ➡ he sought to work WITH the symptoms of the client, stating that the symptoms were the system's failures to try to alleviate the dis-ease.

With my physics background, I extended David's understanding of projective trauma, seeing to understand the mechanics and energetics of dissociation, and invent new ways of unmeasuring it. The insight about projection that I gained was that projective trauma acts in chains - through people, down generations - just like viruses passing from person to person. Projection is like a metaphysical dis-ease.

The Holigral processes therefore, also work with the symptoms to help them complete, whereupon they die, and the job is done. Just like with homeopathy, the minimum is introduced from the facilitator, and the maximum client flow is encouraged.

Another holigral development discovered the human tribes, and that a considerable increase in inner peace and health emerges for people who recognise their tribe. This is where the connection gets even more interesting, because the tribes are all fauna, flora, mineralia and magical creatures that we know of - every real thing and every imaginary thing is the human tribe collective. Each human tribe reflects the animal, but where there is dis-ease we see differences, and this is hugely importance for social and cultural healing.

The Holigral Perspective on Homeopathy

Projection

The first part is the idea of projection and placebo. Whether medicine is allopathic or homeopathic or herbal or another kind, I allocate the real effect in the mind, in the whole system. The strength of a placebo depends upon the strength of the belief in the remedy. Modern medicines with scientific backing and credibility score highly in the belief systems of the occident, whereas Chinese herbal remedies score highly in China.

The projective chain from the ancients onto a herb, from the herb into the initial distillation, from the belief in the person preparing the remedy, into the belief of the practitioner administering and the patient receiving all combines into the effect. If the chain is cut the effect is reduced, and this explains why blind trials and double blind trials produce the results on a parity with placebo. The entire chain is needed for the effect to be most powerful.

Tribes and Remedies

By matching the remedy to the person's tribe, the homeopathic "constitutional remedy" is revealed. Rather than working with the remedy of the dis-ease, the constitution is triggered. This is like the trump card which maximises the system's own healing potential and resonates dis-ease out of the system. I believe that by adding the understanding of the tribe will aid and reinforce the homeopathic effect, and this is where these approaches can combine effectively.

Homeopathically, if the tribe of the pig looks at itself, it will realise that it does treat others equally. The only move required is from "badly" to "as well as oneself" and the entire matrix can flow. It is that simple.

A normal person being a collective there will be a host of lesser remedies addressing each structural aspect of the collective if only that part is to be healed. That is the form of the remedial homeopathy, finding the host of archetypes within and choosing the right one.

Diseases are not of the Self

Many if not all dis-ease actually comes from the culture according to the discoveries of Holigral. When the truth of projection is understood, it is always someone else's fault that a person has a problem behaviour or sickness. As such, many illnesses are inherited or transferred because of the evil in the culture. This is the real cause for heart dis-ease being the highest killer in the occident - the heartless society. Only by creating social awareness and changing the nature of society can these dis-eases be reduced or even eliminated.

As with the person, by telling and understanding their story, they escape its tyranny, so also can we do with the culture, understanding the stories and therefore what to do to change life for the better.
