

The Truth, The Whole Truth And Nothing But The Truth

of the real Holy Grail

Wepwawet (pronounced Wu-Waa-Wooooo!)

Egyptian hieroglyphics for "it" are feather and dawn sun.

Why? The feather represents truth because, as Ma'At says, the heart must be lighter than a feather to pass into the Afterlife - and thus true. It is true because only the cosmic joke and joy are worthy entry to live among the Gods. The dawning sun gives the precise meaning - "light dawns on" - in this case, truth. Thus "it" in Egyptian really means "to get it", "the light dawns on truth", or "the truth dawns" or "truth dawns". And that is the real, simple way to discover the meaning of all their glyphs.

If it is not interpreted with joy, but rather seriously then it will be misinterpreted - all autists can probably understand them, for they interpret literally. And so early society must have been autistic, and the social matrix is the creation of seriousness, of sociopathy, which is why society is run according to the code of the psychopath: crime and punishment, in every sense.

The Egyptians of the Old Kingdom, and some of later times, knew the Truth, and lived in Eden. Yes, Eden was the land of plenty projected back in Genesis during the Exodus. The serious ones have gradually so spoiled the party that now the world is dying, and so it should, for there is neither life nor joy in such a thing. It is a disease, THE disease of the highest order, and in dire need of extermination, more even than any other disease, because once that dies, so then will the plagues, for they come from its origin.

Pandora's Box, the Tree of Knowledge, both the same: facets of the seriousness of the spell of "The One God" that was made when Aaron faced the priests of Ramses II circa 3200 years ago. Set (also known as YHWH) and Apep (also known as the devil), colluded, with Apep swallowing the other Gods, banishing others and putting Goddesses to sleep or banishment - and thus the story of Sleeping Beauty. The problem is that the seriousness has escalated with the layers of fragmentation and separation from source.

Avatars ended up just making it all worse, and so eventually Set gave up and sent in another son. Wu-Waa-Wooooo! The spell is broken and all the Gods returned. The envoy of Osiris is here, to spread the news and bring forth a new age for mankind.

No-one wants to know the truth because it is death, the final word. Once something is solved there is no more research or study to do. Once perfection is attained, it only requires to be maintained. The Holy Grail is death, and the Story of Osiris is precisely the journey you humans have to follow. Right now you are in pieces, in the shit, literally scattered all over the Nile Delta. The returned Goddesses will indeed bring you all healing, and resurrect once the ego has truly died. This is a promise of the Gods. But you will have to work for it, and the more serious you are, the harder the work will be.

That's enough about the serious stuff, so let's get back to some more profound truths. Why does the Egyptian for friend begin with a moon over water followed by a feather? It's a gentle reflection, varied by the water. Why is "is" represented by a feather and a chick? Because the chick is in truth and just being - it has not been developed nor programmed yet. Why is the term cock-up used to describe an error, when an erect penis is actually functional? Everything in the social matrix is back to front. Damn this is still too serious - explaining the matrix to the entranced just loses the fun of it. ...

The Gods have provided the code of your matrix, and a path to escape you from it. All you have to do is to ask, and we can make a new Eden.

However, you may believe that seriousness is the answer to life and your way - good luck, and don't come near us, please.

The Great Escape from the Void of Emptiness

Imagine a person who has escaped the occidental dreamworld and attained a consciousness like the Dalai Lama, but who also has all the analytical and scientific tools and experience to study and understand the signals of the dreamers and society at large.

Imagine that this person has attained oneness, awakening like Buddha, and that they have then gone further to undo the cultural cosmological boundaries to the land of the Gods, to know and see things as they are. They know, feel and experience being one with themselves and all around, and so they are both part of the All and the All. They also know that, this life, they have the powers that come with this life's path, rather than some Godlike force.

Imagine this person also has been going round cloaked - literally an invisibility cloak to hide his presence - to better see the humans close-up.

This is not fiction, but the regular experience of people who undertake their personal development with Holigral, for it is the Holy Grail, and its founder/creator/discoverer, is so far down that path, that his words are perhaps difficult to conceive.

There is a simple model - a theory - that holds the mind in place for a person, a group, a nation and humanity. It is fractal and obvious, staring us in the faces for thousands of years but no-one sees it, who dreams. The model gives rise to processes that allow a person to undo the structures that hold their dream in place, until a magical moment happens when they "become one with all around".

For most people this might only take a week or so, but the more serious a person the longer and harder the path. It was for that reason that Buddha invented meditation - to ensure the serious ones did less procreating. It worked to some extent, but not yet enough, and it is too time-intensive for the occidental world. Besides, Holigral is a better, faster and easier way that more completely erases the deep structures that the meditation was not designed to address - for these structures are peculiar to the tribes of "the One God".

Now, the One God was actually not the All, but rather a naughty God of Ancient Egypt posing as the All - Set, the God of the Desert, storms, pestilences and plagues - ring a bell?

His co-conspirator was Apep - the snake, and a correct understanding of the roots of human evil and the sociopathic 4% that rule, is to see that Set and Apep introduced entities to control society through possessing the leadership, and thus has it continued ever since. Until last year, when their spell was broken, and the other Gods returned to our Group Mind. Now they are active, distressed at a world that has been lived as "Lord of the Flies" for 3200 years, but ready to help their children - us - to undo the evils and restore a land of plenty and Eden as Egypt was before Moses and the Hyksos.

Holigral is not for debaters and time-wasters or for those who want to study but not do. Indeed, it is for those who are ready to transcend, to grow into mature beings who run sustainably with the resources, in balance with nature and with the cosmic forces.

Holigral is death to anything other than the optimal flow and paths, it will dry up obsolete research or business, it will make redundant that which does not serve. Holigral also predicts by analysing and understanding the stories and patterns that make the future inevitable. Apocalypse is coming, and just like the Romans, those in power are hoarding gold in the hope they will dig it up again after the crisis. Forget it, that will not happen, the sociopaths running society might well be supreme survivors, but they do not have the Gods on their side, nor do they have the tools to survive into the new age. Why? Because everyone is recovering the sight to see the metaphysical selves - revealing the emperors' clothes to be invisible once again.

However, though simple exorcism and soul retrieval, through simple patterns of questions and processes that help them escape their own bleak void and abyss, there is hope even for them. The only way to get the Gods onside is to eject the demons, to become stewards and to live the life showing a true leadership like the Pharaohs of old. Then they will be honoured.

The common people, the sheep, non-sociopathic, are guaranteed the Afterlife. Only the Pharaohs need worry about passing through - and this is why the feather test exists for the heart. But hope there is, for among the graduates of the Grail are indeed some former sociopaths, now empaths, with the benefits of All.

This was not short term feel-good experience. 2 years on from the retreat I still feel joy and my life is back on track. I have fallen in love again with my wife, my family are my world and my career has taken off. Thank you Steven, you saved my life.” 2010

However much though, I might try to explain the experience and the results, they remain simply outside the comprehension of someone stuck in the matrix, however much daily meditation or coaching they might have done or do. Holigral works, it works for pretty much anything except when there’s like some brain missing or a physical disability that you’re stuck with this life. Anything else can change.
